ABSTRACT

This index identifies caricatures drawn by David Levine which are found in the "New York Review of Books" from its first issue in 1963 through the special fifteenth anniversary issue dated October 12, 1978. The index is arranged alphabetically by surname for each personality caricatured, with some cross references. The numbering system used refers to the volume, issue number, and page on which that drawing can be located. (CWM)

PREFACE

All caricatures identified in this index were drawn by David Levine, and are found in the pages of the New York Review of Books, Vol. 1, No. 1 through Vol. 25, No. 15. The last issue is the special 15th anniversary issue dated October 12, 1978.

The index is one alphabet by surname with cross references sprinkled throughout. The numbering system used refers to the volume, issue number and page on which that drawing can be located, for example 16(3)7 is Volume 16, Number 3, Page 7. Some drawings include two or more people, and in these cases each person has an index entry. There are a few exceptions to this, such as the Beatles, the Bronte sisters, and the Dionne Quintuplets which are listed as a group rather than individually.

The index has about 900 named entries. We wanted to have a complete index, but regret that identification of about 50 drawings was next to impossible. Rather than surmise, we elected to omit. However, a list of locations for those not included follows so that owners may attempt to make their copy of this index complete. The challenge is offered:
